

Bronze Award Checklist

Pre-Steps

- Pupils and wider school community informed about participation in Eco-Schools programme.
- Eco-Board created and displayed in a prominent position.

Step One: Eco-Committee

- Eco-Committee contains at least one pupil from every year group.
- Eco-Committee meets at least once every half-term.
- Eco-Committee displayed on Eco-Board with corresponding year group.
- Eco-Committee meeting minutes recorded and displayed.
- Representation from parents or governing body on Eco-Committee (they do not have to attend every meeting as long as they are kept up-to-date).

Step Two: Environmental Review

- Eco-Schools Environmental Review completed by pupils.
- Whole school told about findings from Environmental Review.
- Environmental Review displayed on Eco-Board.

Step Three: Action Plan

- Action Plan created by Eco-Committee on Eco-Schools template.
- Actions produced for three Eco-Schools topics (five for Green Flag renewals).
- Action Plan displayed on Eco-Board.
- Actions communicated to whole school.

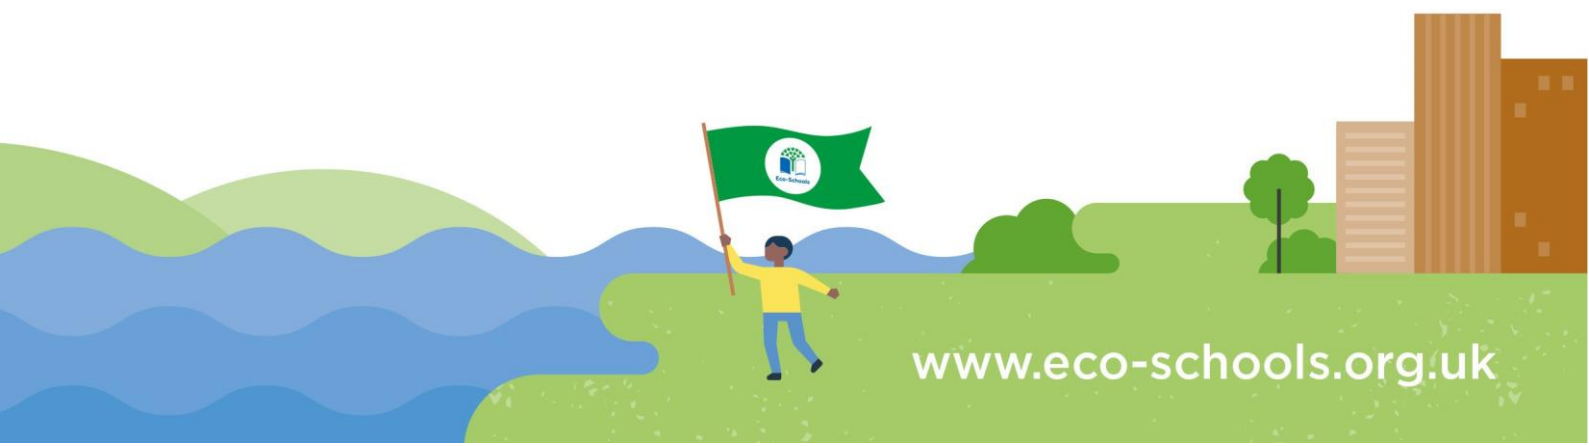

Silver Award Checklist

Step Four: Curriculum Links

- At least three examples of curriculum work found that link to any of the ten Eco-Schools topics.
- Examples displayed on Eco-Board.

Step Five: Informing and Involving

- Eco-Board up-to-date.
- Eco-Board contains evidence of each of the Seven Steps.
- School informed of progress through assemblies, feedback from Eco-Committee and other methods.
- Actions involve whole school and wider community when possible.

Green Flag Checklist

Step Six: Monitoring and Evaluation

- Three actions in Action Plan in progress or completed (five for Green Flag renewals).
- Three varied examples of monitoring displayed on Eco-Board including one method that links to the curriculum (graph or chart).
- Completed actions evaluated.
- Evaluations communicated to whole school.

Step Seven: Eco-Code

- Eco-Code created by pupils.
- Eco-Code relates to actions in school Action Plan.
- Whole school awareness of Eco-Code.
- Eco-Code displayed on Eco-Board and in other areas of the school.

