

Alternative Websites to help keep your children a little busier:

<https://litfilmfest.com/home-learning/daily-videos/> Daily Literacy videos and writing projects

<https://www.athertonsacredheart.wigan.sch.uk/coronavirus/> - RE activities and child friendly coronavirus documents

https://www.aspire-sports.co.uk/programme/maths-move-home-challenges?dm\_i=50H7,6OWX,2JX56D,PCT4,1 maths at home activities

<https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/> - math's tutorials and work (videos are great – good to watch... your choice if you want your child to access the work (no expectation)

<https://theprimaryartclass.com/blog/> Art blog – videos and suggested activities

Time for Kids (Australian digital literacy platform) is offering free global access. You do need to register ... my answers are below:

email address - I typed in my personal one

School Name - Sacred Heart Hindsford

School City - Manchester

State - Wigan

Country - England

I now have access to a range of digital news magazines and finances for children magazines (all on-line). It looks like you can only select 1 age group at a time.

Grade 5 - 6 (ages 10 -12)

Grade 3 - 4 is (ages 8 - 10)

Grade 2 (ages 6-7)

K1 (ages 5 - 6)

The link below will take you to the website:

<https://time.com/tfk-free/>

https://keystagewiki.com/index.php/Science\_Subject Science Reference material (KS1 – Ks4)

<https://www.childnet.com/.../film-competit.../2020/solo-category> Make your own short film / storyboard your own film

missiontogether.org.uk/school-closures-home-activities/

To support you, Mission Together have produced multiple resources to use in home-schooling, or for staff caring for children in school. They've been designed to help pupils learn, reflect, and stand in solidarity with children around the world already living in hardship.