

KS1

Brunel born in 1806.
Brunel built bridges.
Special people such as Florence Nightingale and Rosa Parks.

Upper KS2

Tells us about the past.
Informs us about the people and significant events.
That not all stories of people's life were happy ones.
That there are similarities and differences between every civilisations.

Lower KS2

The Romans had an Empire and settled in Britain.
Boudicca was brave and stood up for the people. Some people say she was a villain and others say she was a hero.
The Ancient Egyptians were similar to the Stone Age- Iron Age as they settled by a river.

What do you know about History?

Lower KS2

Remember facts and vocabulary.
I didn't know so much about British and World History.
I can now compare civilisations like the Greeks, Egyptians and Romans.
I know about key people and how they are significant.

What can you do now in History that you couldn't do 2 years ago?

Upper KS2

Know about archeologists and their findings from sites that they have conducted digs on.
I know about changes in technology and how this tells us more about the past.
I can create my own projects and research.
I can examine more detailed maps and make more comparisons between civilisations.

HISTORY
Pupil Voice
Sacred Heart RC Primary
Atherton

KS1

Helps us to listen
Tells us about Jesus
To help us to remember people

Why is History important?

Lower KS2

Learn lots of facts.
Learn about how people lived before us.
Understand how things change.
Learn and appreciate changes.
Learn what was important to people and how their work and life helped to form how we live today.
We need to learn about the past to help us to solve problems today.
To make the future better.

What qualities does a Historian have to have?

Lower KS2

To be able to present, read and interpret.
Learn languages to help to decode and learn more about a civilisation (Rosetta Stone).
To be knowledgeable and have lots of ways to help you to remember the past.

KS1

To be able to read, write about people.
Think
Know about the past through research.

Upper KS2

Good at learning facts and being able to conduct research.
Be adventurous, open-minded and curious about the past.
Be able to present your findings.
Able to read maps and interpret sources.
Be patient and not give up, have perseverance.
Being able to infer.
Understand the need for change.

Upper KS2

If we didn't know our history we wouldn't know the story of our ancestors.
To learn about the past and how and why Britain is the way it is today.
Learn about our local community, it's background story so that we are proud of our locality.
To learn what came before us so that we can compare and reflect.